Energy our Bodies Use

Interviewer: Dr Baker, can you tell us about the energy our bodies use?

Dr Baker: Sure. Many people don't realize that most of the body's energy– 60 to 70 per cent – is used just for body functions like heartbeat, respiration, and maintaining body temperature.

Interviewer: Really? Almost three quarters of our energy is used just to keep the body working?

Dr Baker: That's right. Of course, if we do any kind of physical activity, we use more energy. I'm thinking of things like sports, manual work, or housework. This represents another 20 to 30 percent of the total energy output of the body .

Interviewer: That leaves about 10 to 20 per cent. How do we use that?

Dr Baker: That last 10 to 20 per cent of energy is used to digest food.

Interviewer: So, we use energy to eat?

Dr Baker: Yes, to eat and to digest our food.

Interviewer: Right. Where does our energy come from?

Dr Baker: Mainly from calories, which we get from different types of food.

Interviewer: That's very interesting. What ….

Believe it or not

Joe's frightening encounter with bees

Joe: Hey, Sam, did I tell you what happened to me in the park on Friday ?

Sam: No.

Joe: it was really frightening. I was eating yogurt with honey and reading a book. Suddenly, a bee started buzzing around me, so I killed it .

Sam: Why did you do that? Bees are our friends .

Joe: Oh, I won't do it again, that's for sure. As I was walking back to work, suddenly there was another bee buzzing around my head, then another and another. Soon there was a whole swarm of them.

Sam: Did they sting you ?

Joe: A few times? Yes, on my neck and arms. So I started running, but I couldn't make them go away .

Sam: What did you do ?

Joe: Well, I was near the river, so I jumped in there and hid under the water .

Sam: Did it work ?

Joe: No, they were just waiting till I got out. So I got my breath back and ran for it. I tried to find a place to go inside, but all I could see was a bus waiting at the bus stop, so I got on. The people thought I was crazy. The bees just followed me on the bus. So all the passengers got off the bus .

Sam: That's unbelievable .

Joe: I know I got off the bus with the others and just ran all the way home. I didn't go back to work that day. But listen to this. I woke up the next morning and all the flowers in my back garden were full of bees, millions of them, like they were waiting for me .

Sam: Oh, come on, Joe. I don't believe that .

Joe: It's true. I went out through the back door and went to my brother's house. I'm staying there at the moment .

Sam: Yes, and there are millions of bees in the neighborhood waiting for you.

Joe: But Sam, listen.

Sam: I've had enough of your jokes. Joe.

Neil: Welcome to The English We Speak, with me Neil…

Feifei: And me, Feifei.

Neil: Sometimes when someone makes a mistake, we need to let them know that 'everyone makes mistakes, and they should try not to worry about it too much' – the expression we use is 'it happens to the best of us'.

Feifei: 'It happens to the best of us'. Could you give us some examples of when you've said it, Neil?

Neil: Sure. Yesterday, my friend told me he missed a deadline at work. He felt terrible about it, but I said, 'don't worry, it happens to the best of us'.

Feifei: Yes, we've all missed deadlines before. Can you give us another example?

Neil: Yes, I went to a castle near where I live, at the weekend. At one point my wife said I should take a photo of the castle, but I had forgotten to bring my phone. I'd left it at home.

Feifei: It happens to the best of us. I've also left things at home before.

Neil: Let's hear some more examples.

Examples

During the speech, the CEO completely forgot what he was saying. It happens to the best of us.

My daughter failed her driving test, and she was really upset. I told her it happens to the best of us.

My friend missed his train because he overslept. It happens to the best of us.

Feifei: You're listening to The English We Speak from BBC Learning English, and we are learning the expression 'it happens to the best of us'. We say it when we mean 'don't worry as anyone can make that kind of mistake'.

Neil: Yes, it's a common way to make someone feel better who has made a mistake and feels bad about it.

Feifei: Yes, it's a way of saying that they shouldn't worry about it, forget their mistake, and move on.

Neil: Yes, and sometimes we say: 'it can happen to the best of us', using the verb 'can'.

Feifei: Well, we've run out of time – but that can happen to the best of us, can't it?

Neil: It certainly can. Bye!

Feifei Bye.

Pilot Accidentally Triggers Hijacking Alarm

A false hijacking alert was sent from an Air Europa plane to Schiphol Airport in Amsterdam. The airplane was about to depart for Madrid, Spain when the pilot accidentally pressed the “hostage alert” button. The alert caused the closure of most of the airport’s gates. Some rumors suggested that passengers on board the airplane were being held hostage by men with knives. After the military police were called in to investigate the situation, they announced that it had been a false alarm. All passengers and crew were safely evacuated, and no one was harmed.
