Anthony jumped off the school bus and raced through the front door, leaving his jacket, shoes and backpack in a trail behind him. " Mom, Mom " he called. Guess what we studied in school today?
Anthony's mom had been cutting celery to go with some peanut butter for his afternoon snack. Smiling at his excitement, she stopped what she was doing and asked: What did you study? We learned all about Canada today. " Anthony answered ". That's where are you from, right? His mom nodded her head. Tell me what you learned. Well. " Anthony started as he sat down on a chair at the counter " We learned that Canada has almost 34 million people. We learned that there are two official languages: English and French " Oui! " Said his mother with a smile. We learned that lots of neat things come from Canada. like what? " Mom asked ". My teacher says that Canada produces tons of wheat and fish, like Salmon. He also said that a lot of movies and some T.V shows are filmed up in Canada. He says that many celebrities like actors and singers come from Canada too. His mom was smiling again as she put Anthony's snack in front of him. My teacher asked who we thought was the most important and influential person who came from Canada." Oh, and who would that be? Arabic coffee or (Gahwa) is a very important drink in Saudi Arabia and in the Arabian Gulf countries. Preparation, serving and drinking Arabic Coffee are derived from Bedouin hospitality. Usually, guests are served with Arabic Coffee and Dates. It is all about tradition, hospitality and ceremony. It's a sign of welcome and marks the beginning and the end of a guest's visit. It can be served anytime at home, at social gatherings or business meetings. The coffee is served and received with the right hand. The host serving the coffee fills the small cup only half full. As soon as the guest drinks it, the cup is refilled continually until the guest gently jiggles the cup indicating he has had enough ,it is customary to take 2 to 3 cups. Sugar and milk are never added but it is often served with dates.
